Thank you so very much for looking after us Westcombes + in your Corrèze paradise last week.

How fortunate we are to have experienced this wonderful time with you there. Thank you for all the care and thoughtfulness that has gone into making Les Jardins Saint Éloi so elegant and comfortable, and thank you for being such attentive, charming, generous and warm hosts. You have a real gift for this and I feel very privileged!

With my very best wishes to you both, and hoping we can visit you again in the summers to come.

Heavenly stay!

If you are thinking of staying in the north of Corrèze, don't hesitate for a second: this accommodation is for you! Rarely seen a guest house of this quality. Hubert warmly welcomes you: after an eclectic and very rich professional career on the national and international level, he retrained as a guest house manager in the original village of his grandparents, to satisfy his desire and his need to be of service. His talkative, extroverted character will charm you. This man of great culture has equipped his home with high quality and very tasteful furniture (this intellectual is also an excellent manual worker). He prepares excellent, hearty breakfasts with homemade products. Only one downside if you occupy the "Hirondelles" room: the bathroom is distant, which can be inconvenient for nighttime needs. If all the rooms are occupied, parking management can become complicated (the accommodation is located in the center of the village). In short, in a nutshell: run for it! A very, very big thank you to Hubert for the five-star quality of his company.

Total change of scenery.

Incredible stay in this guest house. We were welcomed and pampered by Hubert and his wife who are incredibly kind. The place is conducive to relaxation and a change of scenery. Everything is beautiful and decorated down to the smallest detail. Our room was magnificent and clean but the best part was the bathroom and its dream bathtub. The breakfast served in the morning is excellent. Sweet/savory and regional products, we looked forward to this moment every morning. We will come back without hesitation.

Quality, delicacy and intelligence.

The wonderful welcome from Fathi and Hubert who are hosts of rare quality, attentive to the smallest details, and who make the stay an exceptional experience both on a leisure and human level. The serenity of the place where you immediately feel at home. The quality of the services and attention which quickly become felt as a sincere generosity of the guests and not as a simple hotel approach.

- YVES-MARIE 2024 JULY BOOKING.COM

A warm and exceptional welcome. The kindness and availability of our host, the setting and the comfort/decoration made our stay a great moment of happiness.

Elegant, serene and romantic

Sometimes we find ourselves in a pearl. This is one of those addresses. We were received by the extremely friendly owner, helped us find a parking space and even carried our luggage, where do you find it? The house is restored with great taste, the eyes are missing to see all the beauty. There is a swimming pool and a very pleasant garden where there is plenty of room to retreat. If you want. Around the corner there is a delicious restaurant, which mainly serves local products. The owner made us a reservation right away. More than an exuberant breakfast in a wonderfully cozy setting. A worthy conclusion to our vacation and here we will return without hesitation.

The place to be !!!!

Superb establishment decorated with refinement and designed entirely with the well-being of the guests in mind. Our host Hubert is attentive to our every need and gives valuable advice on visiting the surrounding area and nearby restaurants. Fatih and Hubert receive with elegance, kindness and immense generosity. Accustomed to guest houses and B&Bs, we have never been so well received. The breakfast is only made up of high quality products! We loved spending a few days with them.

Everything was perfect

A hidden gem waiting to be discovered!!

Nestled in the quiet streets of Lonzac, Les Jardins Saint-Eloi is an excellent choice when looking for the best guest house in this region (between Corrèze and Dordogne, at the gateway to Périgord). The property is a hidden gem waiting to be discovered. It is magnificent, impeccably furnished to a high standard. When you walk through the doors, you are greeted by a lush oasis of tranquility that immediately washes away the tensions of everyday life. From there we explore the surroundings. Hubert showed us the best places to visit. And did we mention that the breakfast with Hubert's homemade jam was spectacular..?! Hubert and Fatih gave us an exceptional welcome that felt like home. We felt like VIPs! The welcoming ambiance and charming atmosphere make it an ideal retreat for travelers seeking relaxation. If tranquility, beautiful surroundings and exceptional hospitality are what you're looking for, look no further and be sure to check out Les Jardins Saint-Eloi. It's a special place with lovely hosts who made our trip unforgettable and absolutely what was needed after a hot, exciting and tiring week at the Olympic Games in Paris (2024).

If you ever find yourself looking for a place to stay in France, do yourself a favour and choose Le Jardins Saint Eloi in Le Lonzac. By chance, we discovered it and were absolutely delighted. The host, the charming Hubert, deserves special mention for his impeccable attention to detail and his remarkable ability to make guests feel exceptionally welcome.

The property itself is stunning, offering a serene and beautiful escape. We were so enchanted by the tranquility and beauty of Le Jardins Saint Eloi that we rearranged our plans to use it as a base for our travels. From here, we explored the surrounding areas, and each return to our accommodation felt like coming home.

If peace, beauty, and exceptional hospitality are what you seek, make sure to look up Le Jardins Saint Eloi. It truly is a special place that made our trip unforgettable.

A Starlit Stay with Exceptional Hosts at Les Jardins Saint Eloi

Recommended without hesitation. My wife and I had a marvelous time - Hubert and Fatih are such welcoming, delightful hosts! They have created a remarkably cosy, charming space in Les Jardins Saint Eloi. Which acts as an ideal base for all sorts of activities, including multiple nearby hikes, water sports, and spectacular stargazing from a readily accessible peak a short drive away. Breakfasts with Hubert's homemade confitures were a treat, and the dinner d'Hôtes they hosted was delicious, too. These thoughtfully prepared dinners are understandably not available every day. So it's worth making some restaurant bookings during your stay. Hubert and Fatih have great tips. And they go the extra mile - even literally in our case - like when Hubert helped us out after a flat tyre cycling back one day. Total Tour de France SOS moment! All in all, a rare gem. We're grateful for the experience 😊

A unique address in Corrèze: tranquility and refinement, Hubert and Fatih have only one concern: your well-being. The decoration is sophisticated, the magnificent garden around the swimming pool is a little haven of peace, the breakfasts are delicious, and the welcome is so charming and very attentive. Hubert takes the time to show you the best spots in the region. We had a very nice meeting, and we will definitely come back.

An exceptional stay in this place of unusual elegance, associated with the very remarkable originality of the decoration,

.the impeccable comfort of the interior spaces,

.the size of a swimming pool shaded by ...a palm tree and other special species,

.in the calm of a charming little garden with the scents of yesteryear,

.to the generosity of a breakfast composed of the best flavors of this province of France,

And also superb jams gently made on site by a very affable host, as discreet as he is attentive to his guests, and who strives to maintain at a very high level the conviviality of this residence of character in the heart of an environment natural, perfect serenity.

4 very pleasant nights, friendly and ultra helpful welcome

Very pleasant stay in a house with superb decor, in our triple room too, very large, appreciable air conditioning. Ultra friendly welcome from Hubert, he is very professional and in the many years that we have been going to B&Bs I have rarely seen such a helpful welcome and doing everything to ensure that customers are satisfied. Excellent breakfast with quality and very copious products, and the original, homemade jams of which Hubert is proud! Nb: we eat inside, large buffet of cheeses, cold meats, sweets on the table, strawberries or raspberries, croissant breads etc; and good coffee. Cool swimming pool (we are from the south east...) around 24 - 25 C but pleasant and beautiful surroundings (garden) and deckchairs. The three of us (three adults) were able to have dinner only one evening out of the 4 we were there, we were outside on the terrace by the pool, very good and pleasant meal. Well located for visiting the region, Ségur and Pompadour, Uzerche, Mille vaches, ... Thank you!

Where to start? To do with the owners Fati and Hubert: I did not expect this from the site B & B but Hubert and Fati make you feel immediately at home. We had a few delays and arrived much later than expected. They were just waiting for us to offer us drinks and help us unload the car. If you have small children, you don't have to worry. They will be more than welcome but make sure you don't slow anything down. Fortunately, ours was not. They are really lovely and kind people. The house: C a luxury B &B. -Luxury is detail. We feel that it has been thought a lot in the way the rooms but also the house have been designed. We had the 2 bedrooms on the 1st floor for us and our grandchildren (3 and 5 years old). Especially our room (Malmaison) was really spacious and comfortable. I like to compare to hotels because it gives a reference. The Saint Eloi Gardens can compete with the best Ritz Carlton, Roomers etc. Definitely 5 stars. Breakfast: Everything is composed of local products especially chosen by Hubert. Delicious ham and cheese with the usual pastries and French jam. The orange juice was also excellent which is not always the case. One thing I didn't think I would ask for was scrambled eggs or an omelet. So I don't know if it's an option Finally garden/location: -both are really quiet and relaxing. You can still see the Milky Way from the garden and the quiet was what we were looking for Conclusion: HIGHLY RECOMMEND :)

This is thanks to its owners of extraordinary kindness and benevolence.

They are adapted to all my food intolerances for breakfast which offers local products and great qualities.

We will come back and advise you to go spend an evening of happiness at their house.

Excellent stay at the Jardins de Saint-Eloi, where we enjoyed the Hirondelles and Malmaison rooms, both very comfortable and tastefully decorated (like the rest of the house for that matter). The place is full of charm (we quickly take a liking to crack by the pool) and the welcome is adorable. We will keep a very good memory of the evenings at the table d'hotes, where we enjoyed in very good company a delicious cuisine. Thank you Fatih and Hubert for your welcome and your good advice. Looking forward to a future visit.

A little piece of paradise... We enjoyed an exceptional stay at the Saint Eloi gardens. From the refined decoration to the rejuvenating garden to the cozy rooms and the delicious table d'hôte, everything is there for a perfect time. The hosts Fatih and Hubert create a warm and friendly atmosphere, their incredible sense of welcome is really the icing on the cake. We highly recommend!

If paradise exists, it is at the Jardins Saint-Eloi that it nestles. We had the pleasure of discovering not only a splendid place but absolutely delicious hosts. The charm of a home is nothing if no soul inhabits it. Thanks to Hubert and Fatih for this magnificent success that makes you want to sit down, to enjoy this extraordinary place. We opened our eyes wide, pushed "oh" and "ah", took pictures in all directions to remember while waiting, for sure, to come back.

The host and his wife are incredibly friendly people and like that you are there. They are disarming and gentle. The rooms are beautiful, comfortable, beautifully decorated and nice and clean. The garden with swimming pool is beautiful. We will definitely come back and advise this to friends!

A hidden gem with an elegant eclectic interior, the softest hostess and host and a beautiful soothing garden with a large pool. What you see is what you get. The host also knows many scenic hikes and quiet hikes nearby. Even if the Limousine region is less known, it is the place to be for lovers of food and nature.

Excellent address... stop here!

The welcome... the calm... and comfort were on top. I forgot the breakfast... excellent... with its salty / sweet.

The swimming pool... we couldn't take advantage of it... but it's not the fault of the owners... simply because of the weather.

We had a great stay in an area to discover, in a place with the perfect setting and received by warm and always available guests. We can only recommend this place that deserves to be known and to which we will return without any hesitation.

Superb place and magnificent welcome from our hosts, who were able to give us the feeling of being both at home, and received like royalty, a great achievement! We came for a short stay, but now we hope to come back for a longer period, we enjoyed the place so much! Fatih, Hubert, thank you again for everything, and see you soon, without a doubt!
